GENERAL

Type of organisation

- 1 The organisation will, upon registration, be a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO).

Scottish principal office

- 2 The principal office of the organisation will be in Scotland (and must remain in Scotland).

Name

- 3 The name of the organisation is "Hamilton Model Flying Club".

Affiliation

- 4 The club shall be affiliated to the 'Scottish Aeromodellers Association' and flying members will be insured through S.A.A., B.M.F.A., or L.M.A insurance scheme.

Purposes

- 5 The organisation's purposes are to provide social, educational and recreational facilities for the members of the club and to promote interest in all model flying disciplines.

Powers

- 6 The organisation has power to do anything which is calculated to further its purposes or is conducive or incidental to doing so.
- 7 No part of the income or property of the organisation may be paid or transferred (directly or indirectly) to the members - either in the course of the organisation's existence or on dissolution - except where this is done in direct furtherance of the organisation's charitable purposes.

Liability of members

- 8 The members of the organisation have no liability to pay any sums to help to meet the debts (or other liabilities) of the organisation if it is wound up; accordingly, if the organisation is unable to meet its debts, the members will not be held responsible.
- 9 The members and charity trustees have certain legal duties under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; and clause 8 does not exclude (or limit) any personal liabilities they might incur if they are in breach of those duties or in breach of other legal obligations or duties that apply to them personally.

General structure

- 10 The structure of the organisation consists of:-
 - 10.1 The MEMBERS - who have the right to attend members' meetings (including any annual general meeting) and have important powers under the constitution; in particular, the members appoint people to serve on the board and take decisions on changes to the constitution itself;
 - 10.2 the BOARD - who hold regular meetings, and generally control the activities of the organisation; for example, the board is responsible for monitoring and controlling the financial position of the organisation.
- 11 The people serving on the board are referred to in this constitution as CHARITY TRUSTEES.
- 12 There shall be no employees of the organisation.

MEMBERS

Qualifications for membership

- 13 Membership is open to any individual who wishes to become involved in any aspect of model flying.

Application for membership

- 14 Any person who wishes to become a member must sign a written application for membership; the application will then be considered by the board at its next board meeting.
- 15 The board may, at its discretion, refuse to admit any person to membership.
- 16 The board must notify each applicant promptly (in writing or by e-mail) of its decision on whether or not to admit him/her to membership.
- 17 Any membership approved by the board may be admitted to the club and, having paid the subscription fee, shall have full voting rights. It is a condition of the membership that all the members shall sign their application form, acknowledging that they have read and agree to abide by the rules and safety regulations.
- 18 Members who are under 18 years of age on the 31st December shall be deemed to be a junior member for the succeeding year. Such members will NOT have voting rights. Membership types containing more than one adult shall be entitled to one vote by an adult from within their membership.

- 19 Members who live more than 150 miles from the club's flying site may apply for a country membership. Country members will NOT have voting rights.
- 20 Nominations for honorary membership are to be voted on by the membership. Honorary Membership is only to be awarded when a minimum of 90% of the members voting are in favour. Nominations for honorary membership should be submitted to the board not less than 30 days before the AGM.
- 21 The club will not discriminate on grounds of age, ability, race, religion or sexual preference.
- 22 The Club has adopted the SAA policy, procedures and guidelines for the promotion of welfare and care of children and vulnerable adults in model flying.

Membership subscription

- 23 New members shall pay a joining fee. All members shall pay an annual subscription fee to renew membership.
- 24 All fees shall be decided at the AGM and members will be notified of the fees for the forthcoming year within 28 days of the AGM. Club fees run from the 1st of April to the 31st of March of each calendar year, payable within 30 days of the 1st of April. Anyone whose fees have not been paid by this date shall cease to be recognised as a member.

Insurance

- 25 Flyers must also pay an annual insurance fee with a recognised body as outlined in clause 4.
- 26 The treasurer shall arrange block insurance through the SAA.
- 27 Members who wish to take out some other recognised form of insurance must arrange their own insurance cover and produce proof of renewal before they will be allowed to fly.

Register of members

- 28 The board must keep a register of members, setting out
 - 28.1 for each current member:
 - 28.1.1 his/her full name and address; and
 - 28.1.2 the date on which he/she was registered as a member of the organisation;

- 29 The board must ensure that the register of members is updated within 28 days of any change:
- 29.1 which arises from a resolution of the board or a resolution passed by the members of the organisation; or
 - 29.2 which is notified to the organisation.
- 30 If a member or charity trustee of the organisation requests a copy of the register of members, the board must ensure that a copy is supplied to him/her within 28 days, providing the request is reasonable; if the request is made by a member (rather than a charity trustee), the board may provide a copy which has the addresses blanked out.

Withdrawal from membership

- 31 Any person who wants to withdraw from membership must give a written notice of withdrawal to the organisation, signed by him/her; he/she will cease to be a member as from the time when the notice is received by the organisation.

Transfer of membership

- 32 Membership of the organisation may not be transferred by a member.

Re-registration of members

- 33 The board may, at any time, issue notices to the members requiring them to confirm that they wish to remain as members of the organisation, and allowing them a period of 28 days (running from the date of issue of the notice) to provide that confirmation to the board.
- 34 If a member fails to provide confirmation to the board (in writing or by e-mail) that he/she wishes to remain as a member of the organisation before the expiry of the 28-day period referred to in clause 33, the board may expel him/her from membership.
- 35 A notice under clause 33 will not be valid unless it refers specifically to the consequences (under clause 34) of failing to provide confirmation within the 28-day period.

Expulsion from membership

- 36 Any person may be expelled from membership by way of a resolution passed by not less than two thirds of those present and voting at a members' meeting, providing the following procedures have been observed:-

- 36.1 at least 21 days' notice of the intention to propose the resolution must be given to the member concerned, specifying the grounds for the proposed expulsion;
- 36.2 the member concerned will be entitled to be heard on the resolution at the members' meeting at which the resolution is proposed.

Termination

- 37 Membership of the organisation will terminate on death.

DECISION-MAKING BY THE MEMBERS

Members' meetings

- 38 The board must arrange a meeting of members (an annual general meeting or "AGM") in each calendar year.
- 39 The gap between one AGM and the next must not be longer than 15 months.
- 40 Notwithstanding clause 38, an AGM does not need to be held during the calendar year in which the organisation is formed; but the first AGM must still be held within 15 months of the date on which the organisation is formed.
- 41 The business of each AGM must include:-
 - 41.1 a report by the chair on the activities of the organisation;
 - 41.2 consideration of the annual accounts of the organisation;
 - 41.3 the election/re-election of charity trustees, as referred to in clauses 72 to 75.
- 42 The board may arrange a special members' meeting at any time.

Power to request the board to arrange a special members' meeting

- 43 The board must arrange a special members' meeting if they are requested to do so by a notice (which may take the form of two or more documents in the same terms, each signed by one or more members) by members who amount to 5% or more of the total membership of the organisation at the time, providing:
 - 43.1 the notice states the purposes for which the meeting is to be held; and 43.2 those purposes are not inconsistent with the terms of this constitution, the Charities and Trustee (Investment) Scotland Act 2005 or any other statutory provision.

44 If the board receive a notice under clause 43, the date for the meeting which they arrange in accordance with the notice must not be later than 28 days from the date on which they received the notice.

Notice of members' meetings

45 At least 14 clear days' notice must be given of any AGM or any special members' meeting.

46 The notice calling a members' meeting must specify in general terms what business is to be dealt with at the meeting; and

46.1 in the case of a resolution to alter the constitution, must set out the exact terms of the proposed alteration(s); or

46.2 in the case of any other resolution falling within clause 45 (requirement for two-thirds majority) must set out the exact terms of the resolution.

47 The reference to "clear days" in clause 45 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice,

47.1 the day after the notices are posted (or sent by e-mail) should be excluded; and

47.2 the day of the meeting itself should also be excluded.

48 Notice of every members' meeting must be given to all the members of the organisation, and to all the charity trustees; but the accidental omission to give notice to one or more members will not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.

49 Any notice which requires to be given to a member under this constitution must be: -

49.1 sent by post to the member, at the address last notified by him/her to the organisation; or

49.2 sent by e-mail to the member, at the e-mail address last notified by him/her to the organisation.

50 A general business meeting shall take place once per month.

Procedure at members' meetings

51 No valid decisions can be taken at any members' meeting unless a quorum is present.

- 52 The quorum for a members' meeting is five members all of whom are members of the club's committee.
- 53 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which a members' meeting was due to start - or if a quorum ceases to be present during a members' meeting - the meeting cannot proceed; and fresh notices of meeting will require to be sent out, to deal with the business (or remaining business) which was intended to be conducted.
- 54 The chair of the organisation should act as chairperson of each members' meeting.
- 55 If the chair of the organisation is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the charity trustees present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.
- 56 Movers of motions or amendments shall be allowed ten (10) minutes to speak to the motion or amendment, all others five (5) minutes. Amendments to the original motion or amendment may be taken from the floor if seconded and accepted for discussion. Any amendments to any original motion shall be disposed of before any other amendment is accepted for discussion. If any such amendment is carried, it shall become the substantive motion, to which further amendments may be moved.

Voting at members' meetings

- 57 Every member has one vote, which must be given personally (subject to the restrictions in clauses 17,18 and 19 above) with the exception of the chairperson of the meeting.
- 58 All decisions at members' meetings will be made by majority vote - with the exception of the types of resolution listed in clause 59.
- 59 The following resolutions will be valid only if passed by not less than two thirds of those voting on the resolution at a members' meeting (or if passed by way of a written resolution under clause 63):
- 59.1 a resolution amending the constitution;
 - 59.2 a resolution expelling a person from membership under clause 36;
 - 59.3 a resolution directing the board to take any particular step (or directing the board not to take any particular step);
 - 59.4 a resolution approving the amalgamation of the organisation with another SCIO (or approving the constitution of the new SCIO to be constituted as the successor pursuant to that amalgamation);

59.5 a resolution to the effect that all of the organisation's property, rights and liabilities should be transferred to another SCIO (or agreeing to the transfer from another SCIO of all of its property, rights and liabilities);

59.6 a resolution for the winding up or dissolution of the organisation.

60 If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a casting vote.

61 A resolution put to the vote at a members' meeting will be decided on a show of hands - unless the chairperson (or at least two other members present at the meeting) ask for a secret ballot.

62 The chairperson will decide how any secret ballot is to be conducted, and he/she will declare the result of the ballot at the meeting.

Written resolutions by members

63 A resolution agreed to in writing (or by e-mail) by the members will be as valid as if it had been passed at a members' meeting; the date of the resolution will be taken to be the date on which the last member agreed to it.

Minutes

64 The board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all members' meetings.

65 Minutes of members' meetings must include the names of those present; and (so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.

66 The board shall make available copies of the minutes referred to in clause 64 to any member of the public requesting them; but on the basis that the board may exclude confidential material to the extent permitted under clause 114.

BOARD

Number of charity trustees

67 The maximum number of charity trustees is eight; out of that:

67.1 no more than six shall be charity trustees who were elected/appointed under clauses 72 and 73 (or deemed to have been appointed under clause 71); and 67.2 no more than two shall be charity trustees who were co-opted under the provisions of clauses 77 and 78.

68 The minimum number of charity trustees is five.

Eligibility

69 A person shall not be eligible for election/appointment to the board under clauses 58 to 61 unless he/she is a member of the organisation; a person appointed to the board under clause 77 need not, however, be a member of the organisation.

70 A person will not be eligible for election or appointment to the board if he/she is: -

70.1 disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

Initial charity trustees

71 The individuals who signed the charity trustee declaration forms which accompanied the application for incorporation of the organisation shall be deemed to have been appointed by the members as charity trustees with effect from the date of incorporation of the organisation.

Election, retirement, re-election

72 At each AGM, the members may elect any member (unless he/she is debarred from membership under clause 70) to be a charity trustee.

73 The board may at any time appoint any member (unless he/she is debarred from membership under clause 70) to be a charity trustee.

74 At each AGM, all of the charity trustees elected/appointed under clauses 72 and 73 (and, in the case of the first AGM, those deemed to have been appointed under clause 71) shall retire from office – but shall then be eligible for re-election under clause 72.

75 A charity trustee retiring at an AGM will be deemed to have been re-elected unless: -

75.1 he/she advises the board prior to the conclusion of the AGM that he/she does not wish to be re-appointed as a charity trustee; or

75.2 an election process was held at the AGM and he/she was not among those elected/re-elected through that process; or

75.3 a resolution for the re-election of that charity trustee was put to the AGM and was not carried.

- 76 The board may co-opt any member of the club to fill any vacancy arising in the board. Any such appointment will only be until the next AGM.

Appointment/re-appointment of co-opted charity trustees

- 77 In addition to their powers under clause 73, the board may at any time appoint any non-member of the organisation to be a charity trustee (subject to clause 67, and providing he/she is not debarred from membership under clause 70) either on the basis that he/she has been nominated by a body with which the organisation has close contact in the course of its activities or on the basis that he/she has specialist experience and/or skills which could be of assistance to the board.
- 78 At each AGM, all of the charity trustees appointed under clause 77 shall retire from office – but shall then be eligible for re-appointment under that clause.

Termination of office

- 79 A charity trustee will automatically cease to hold office if: -
- 79.1 he/she becomes disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005;
 - 79.2 he/she becomes incapable for medical reasons of carrying out his/her duties as a charity trustee - but only if that has continued (or is expected to continue) for a period of more than six months;
 - 79.3 (in the case of a charity trustee elected/appointed under clauses 58 to 75) he/she ceases to be a member of the organisation;
 - 79.4 he/she gives the organisation a notice of resignation, signed by him/her;
 - 79.5 he/she is absent (without good reason, in the opinion of the board) from more than three consecutive meetings of the board - but only if the board resolves to remove him/her from office;
 - 79.6 he/she is removed from office by resolution of the board on the grounds that he/she is considered to have committed a material breach of the code of conduct for charity trustees (as referred to in clause 96);
 - 79.7 he/she is removed from office by resolution of the board on the grounds that he/she is considered to have been in serious or persistent breach of his/her duties under section 66(1) or (2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; or

- 79.8 he/she is removed from office by a resolution of the members passed at a members' meeting.
- 80 A resolution under paragraph 79.6, 79.7 or 79.8 shall be valid only if: -
- 80.1 the charity trustee who is the subject of the resolution is given reasonable prior written notice of the grounds upon which the resolution for his/her removal is to be proposed;
- 80.2 the charity trustee concerned is given the opportunity to address the meeting at which the resolution is proposed, prior to the resolution being put to the vote; and
- 80.3 (in the case of a resolution under paragraph 79.6 or 79.7) at least two thirds (to the nearest round number) of the charity trustees then in office vote in favour of the resolution.

Register of charity trustees

- 81 The board must keep a register of charity trustees, setting out
- 81.1 for each current charity trustee:
- 81.1.1 his/her full name and address;
- 81.1.2 the date on which he/she was appointed as a charity trustee; and
- 81.1.3 any office held by him/her in the organisation;
- 81.2 for each former charity trustee - for at least 6 years from the date on which he/she ceased to be a charity trustee:
- 81.2.1 the name of the charity trustee;
- 81.2.2 any office held by him/her in the organisation; and
- 81.2.3 the date on which he/she ceased to be a charity trustee.
- 82 The board must ensure that the register of charity trustees is updated within 28 days of any change:
- 82.1 which arises from a resolution of the board or a resolution passed by the members of the organisation; or
- 82.2 which is notified to the organisation.
- 83 If any person requests a copy of the register of charity trustees, the board must ensure that a copy is supplied to him/her within 28 days, providing the request is reasonable; if the request is made by a person who is not a charity trustee of the organisation, the board may provide a copy which has the addresses blanked out - if the SCIO is satisfied that including that information is likely to jeopardise the safety or security of any person or premises.

Office-bearers

- 84 The charity trustees must elect (from among themselves) a chair, a vice-chair, a secretary a treasurer and a safety officer.
- 85 In addition to the office-bearers required under clause 84, the charity trustees may elect (from among themselves) further office-bearers if they consider that appropriate.
- 86 All of the office-bearers will cease to hold office at the conclusion of each AGM, but may then be re-elected under clause 84 or 85.
- 87 A person elected to any office will automatically cease to hold that office: -
- 87.1 if he/she ceases to be a charity trustee; or
 - 87.2 if he/she gives to the organisation a notice of resignation from that office, signed by him/her.

Powers of board

- 88 Except where this constitution states otherwise, the organisation (and its assets and operations) will be managed by the board; and the board may exercise all the powers of the organisation.
- 89 A meeting of the board at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the board.
- 90 The members may, by way of a resolution passed in compliance with clause 59 (requirement for two-thirds majority), direct the board to take any particular step or direct the board not to take any particular step; and the board shall give effect to any such direction accordingly.

Charity trustees - general duties

- 91 Each of the charity trustees has a duty, in exercising functions as a charity trustee, to act in the interests of the organisation; and, in particular, must:-
- 91.1 seek, in good faith, to ensure that the organisation acts in a manner which is in accordance with its purposes;
 - 91.2 act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;
 - 91.3 in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the organisation and any other party:

91.3.1 put the interests of the organisation before that of the other party;

91.3.2 where any other duty prevents him/her from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the organisation and refrain from participating in any deliberation or decision of the other charity trustees with regard to the matter in question;

91.4 ensure that the organisation complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed under or by virtue of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

92 In addition to the duties outlined in clause 91, all of the charity trustees must take such steps as are reasonably practicable for the purpose of ensuring: -

92.1 that any breach of any of those duties by a charity trustee is corrected by the charity trustee concerned and not repeated; and

92.2 that any trustee who has been in serious and persistent breach of those duties is removed as a trustee.

93 Provided he/she has declared his/her interest - and has not voted on the question of whether or not the organisation should enter into the arrangement - a charity trustee will not be debarred from entering into an arrangement with the organisation in which he/she has a personal interest; and (subject to clause 94 and to the provisions relating to remuneration for services contained in the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005), he/she may retain any personal benefit which arises from that arrangement.

94 No charity trustee may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of the organisation; and no charity trustee may be given any remuneration by the organisation for carrying out his/her duties as a charity trustee.

95 The charity trustees may be paid all travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with carrying out their duties; this may include expenses relating to their attendance at meetings.

Code of conduct for charity trustees

96 Each of the charity trustees shall comply with the code of conduct (incorporating detailed rules on conflict of interest) prescribed by the board from time to time.

97 The code of conduct referred to in clause 96 shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of charity trustees contained in this constitution and the duties imposed on charity trustees under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; and all relevant provisions of this constitution shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time

DECISION-MAKING BY THE CHARITY TRUSTEES

Notice of board meetings

- 98 Any charity trustee may call a meeting of the board or ask the secretary to call a meeting of the board.
- 99 At least 7 days' notice must be given of each board meeting, unless (in the opinion of the person calling the meeting) there is a degree of urgency which makes that inappropriate.

Procedure at board meetings

- 100 No valid decisions can be taken at a board meeting unless a quorum is present; the quorum for board meetings is four charity trustees, present in person.
- 101 If at any time the number of charity trustees in office falls below the number stated as the quorum in clause 100, the remaining charity trustee(s) will have power to fill the vacancies or call a members' meeting - but will not be able to take any other valid decisions.
- 102 The chair of the organisation should act as chairperson of each board meeting.
- 103 If the chair is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the charity trustees present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.
- 104 Every charity trustee has one vote, which must be given personally.
- 105 All decisions at board meetings will be made by majority vote.
- 106 If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a second (casting) vote.
- 107 The board may, at its discretion, allow any person to attend and speak at a board meeting notwithstanding that he/she is not a charity trustee - but on the basis that he/she must not participate in decision-making.
- 108 The board shall have the power to introduce any rules as may be considered necessary to maintain proper conduct within the club and members shall be made fully aware of any additions to the rules of the club at a club general business meeting.

- 109 A charity trustee must not vote at a board meeting (or at a meeting of a sub-committee) on any resolution which relates to a matter in which he/she has a personal interest or duty which conflicts (or may conflict) with the interests of the organisation; he/she must withdraw from the meeting while an item of that nature is being dealt with.
- 110 For the purposes of clause 109: -
- 110.1 an interest held by an individual who is “connected” with the charity trustee under section 68(2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (husband/wife, partner, child, parent, brother/sister etc) shall be deemed to be held by that charity trustee;
- 110.2 a charity trustee will be deemed to have a personal interest in relation to a particular matter if a body in relation to which he/she is an employee, director, member of the management committee, officer or elected representative has an interest in that matter.

Minutes

- 111 The board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all board meetings and meetings of sub-committees.
- 112 The minutes to be kept under clause 111 must include the names of those present; and (so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 113 The board shall (subject to clause 114) make available copies of the minutes referred to in clause 111 to any member of the public requesting them.
- 114 The board may exclude from any copy minutes made available to a member of the public under clause 113 any material which the board considers ought properly to be kept confidential - on the grounds that allowing access to such material could cause significant prejudice to the interests of the organisation or on the basis that the material contains reference to matters which it would be inappropriate to divulge.

ADMINISTRATION

Delegation to sub-committees

- 115 The board may delegate any of their powers to sub-committees; a sub-committee must include at least one charity trustee, but other members of a sub-committee need not be charity trustees.

- 116 The board may also delegate to the chair of the organisation (or the holder of any other post) such of their powers as they may consider appropriate.
- 117 When delegating powers under clause 115 or 116, the board must set out appropriate conditions (which must include an obligation to report regularly to the board).
- 118 Any delegation of powers under clause 115 or 116 may be revoked or altered by the board at any time.
- 119 The rules of procedure for each sub-committee, and the provisions relating to membership of each sub-committee, shall be set by the board.

Operation of accounts

- 120 Subject to clause 121, the signatures of two out of three signatories appointed by the board will be required in relation to all operations (other than the lodging of funds) on the bank and building society accounts held by the organisation; at least one out of the two signatures must be the signature of a charity trustee.
- 121 Where the organisation uses electronic facilities for the operation of any bank or building society account, the authorisations required for operations on that account must be consistent with the approach reflected in clause 120.
- 122 The board should ensure that the club maintains a minimum reserve of £3,000 in its bank account to cater for unforeseen events that endanger the facilities and/or operation of the club. Access to these reserve funds should only be by the approval of the club members at the AGM or at a Special General Meeting of the club

Accounting records and annual accounts

- 123 The board must ensure that proper accounting records are kept, in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements.
- 124 The board must prepare annual accounts, complying with all relevant statutory requirements; if an audit is required under any statutory provisions (or if the board consider that an audit would be appropriate for some other reason), the board should ensure that an audit of the accounts is carried out by a qualified auditor.
- 125 Members auditing the accounts are to be unpaid, however any expenses incurred whilst carrying out this function will be reimbursed from the club funds.
- 126 The club's financial year end shall be the end of the month preceding the AGM.

MISCELLANEOUS

Publications

127 Any publication being put into the public domain portraying the policy, viewpoints or activities of Hamilton Model Flying Club in any format must be approved by the board before submission to the media. The board reserve the right to request alteration or removal from that domain, if this is deemed not to be in the interests of the club. If a club member is named directly in the publication, the club member must first give permission for their name to be used.

128 Winding-up

129 If the organisation is to be wound up or dissolved, the winding-up or dissolution process will be carried out in accordance with the procedures set out under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

130 Current members will be reimbursed their membership fee for that year.

131 Any surplus assets available to the organisation immediately preceding its winding up or dissolution must be used for purposes which are the same as - or which closely resemble - the purposes of the organisation as set out in this constitution.

Alterations to the constitution
